

Narayan Rathi

Co-founder & Chief Executive Officer, Automate Accelerator | Melbourne, Australia

Before founding Automate Accelerator, Narayan co-founded and built two of Australia's fastest-growing telecommunications businesses. Time Telecom was ranked No. 1 on the 2012 BRW Fast 100 and acquired by ASX-listed M2 Group; its successor, Smart Business Telecom, kept the run going with back-to-back BRW Fast Starters and Deloitte Technology Fast 50 placings.

"First place on the Fast 100 list went to telecommunications company Time Telecom, with a revenue of $51.13m and growth of 375.21 percent."
Coverage of the BRW Fast 100, 2012

3-YEAR REVENUE GROWTH	REVENUE AT BRW No. 1	CUSTOMERS ACQUIRED BY M2
375.21%	$51.13 million	~30,000

Recognition track record

2012	BRW Fast 100 - ranked No. 1 in Australia	Time Telecom
2012	Acquired by ASX-listed M2 Group (ASX: MTU)	Time Telecom
2014	BRW Fast Starters - 8th	Smart Business Telecom
2015	BRW Fast Starters - 4th	Smart Business Telecom
2015	Deloitte Technology Fast 50 Australia - 47th (120% growth)	Smart Business Telecom

The story

Co-founded by Narayan, Time Telecom was a Melbourne-based provider serving ~30,000 small-business and residential customers Australia-wide. Disciplined growth - 375.21% over three years to $51.13 million in revenue - took it to the top of the 2012 BRW Fast 100 (the AFR / BRW ranking of the country's fastest-growing established companies). In 2012 it was acquired by M2 Telecommunications Group (ASX: MTU) via subsidiary Southern Cross Telco for a reported A$18.5 million. Narayan and his co-founders then built Smart Business Telecom, doubling revenue from ~$22M to ~$48M in three years and earning fresh BRW Fast Starters and Deloitte Technology Fast 50 recognition.

What he does today

Narayan is co-founder and CEO of Automate Accelerator, an Australian-owned B2B growth partner that helps companies reach specific buyers through clear buyer definitions, checked decision-maker data and human-led outreach - measured by real replies and conversations, not activity.

Sources & screenshots to capture

BRW / Deloitte lists credit the COMPANY (Time Telecom, then Smart Business Telecom), not individuals - there is no standalone article naming Narayan personally. The mention that names you directly is your own LinkedIn 'Honors & awards' section (first row). Outbound image downloads are blocked in this environment, so below are the source links; open each, screenshot the highlighted item and place it beside the matching claim.

Narayan Rathi - LinkedIn 'Honors & awards' (NAMES YOU)

Lists 'BRW Fast Starters - 1st place' and 'BRW Fast 100'. The artifact that credits you personally - screenshot it.
linkedin.com/in/narayanrathi

BRW Fast 100 2012 - No. 1 (PUBLISHED ARTICLE)

Franchise Business, 'Which franchises made the Fast 100 list?' quotes verbatim: "First place on the Fast 100 list went to telecommunications company Time Telecom, with a revenue of $51.13m and growth of 375.21 percent."
franchisebusiness.com.au/which-franchises-made-the-fast-100-list/

M2 acquisition of Time Telecom (2012)

The Register, 28 Feb 2012, 'M2 Telecoms buys some Time' (Southern Cross Telco; ~A$18.5M; ~30,000 customers).
theregister.com/2012/02/28/m2_buys_time/ ; M2 Group: en.wikipedia.org/wiki/M2_Group

Smart Business Telecom - BRW Fast Starters (2014 & 2015)

Ex-Time Telecom group; moved 8th (2014) to 4th (2015); revenue ~$22M to ~$48M in three years.
forums.whirlpool.net.au/thread/1091483

Smart Business Telecom - Deloitte Tech Fast 50 2015 (#47)

Ranked 47th with 120% growth. Deloitte Technology Fast 50 Winners 2015
(slideshare.net/DeloitteAustralia/deloitte-technology-fast-50-winners-2015)

Companies (LinkedIn)

Time Telecom: au.linkedin.com/company/time-telecom ; Smart Business Telecom:
crunchbase.com/organization/smart-business-telecom

Verification notes - please confirm before sending:

1. Role: per your confirmation the bio describes you as co-founder/owner of both Time Telecom and Smart Business Telecom. (Public LinkedIn currently shows 'Senior Director, Operations' then 'Senior Director, Marketing' - consider aligning your LinkedIn so it matches the co-founder framing before a client cross-checks it.)
2. Deloitte Technology Fast 50: now specific and sourced - Smart Business Telecom, 2015, 47th, 120% growth (Deloitte Australia winners list). Confirm before publishing.
3. Award logos: your launch checklist flags confirming whether BRW / Deloitte / M2 logos can be used. Get sign-off before adding logos to a client-facing version.